Classroom discipline has become such a problem today that both students and teachers are dropping out in record numbers. We have researched the most effective ways to intervene in the problems that confront educators today. From these findings we created Smart Discipline® for the Classroom—the quintessential guide to respect and cooperation.

Now the Smart Discipline® for the Classroom Workshop is coming to your area. You will learn a vast array of techniques that foster attitudes conducive to learning. In the workshop we will cover topics such as:

- How to prevent misbehavior.
- How to get defiant students to want to learn from you.
- What never to do with an angry student
- How to motivate students to pay attention.
- A surefire way to get students to stop talking
- A quick fix for constant complainers
- Build self-esteem and correct behaviors at the same time
- Dangerous situations—how to keep yourself and the other students safe.

What School Administrators Say:

"Smart Discipline Works! It consists of a wide variety of concrete solutions to allow for differences in teaching and learning styles. It's a must for beginning and seasoned teachers."
Jim Berry, Principal
Northwestern University Lab School

"Here is a common sense, practical approach to good discipline. Well organized, logical, and sequential. It's like having a toolbox filled with tools."
Curt Boudreaux, Retired Principal
Education and Business Counselor

"Smart Discipline interventions get immediate results. Our teachers report actual changes in respect and cooperation with even highly difficult students."
Joel Neil Gross, Ed.D.
Professor of Education
Hominy Mental Health Ctr.
